GENERAL TERMS

The application form with a legally valid signature shall constitute an educational agreement for the corresponding DBA study program.

By signing this form, the student acknowledges the study program-related Admission, Testing and Payment Terms and Conditions. These Terms and Conditions are recorded in the corresponding study program.

Enrolment is legally binding and may only be cancelled before the end of the first semester. Notice of withdrawal must be sent by registered mail to the university administration 30 days before the end of the semester. After the first year, the student may also leave the program.

The HWZ reserves the right to decide whether a course of study is to be offered, taking the number of applicants into account. If a course of study is not offered in a given year, all students affected will be notified. They may then opt for another course of study.

Students receive a log-in and password for the extra web of the HWZ where curricula and other information can be accessed. Students are to read their HWZ e-mail regularly, as official information is sent to the HWZ e-mail accounts. All students must own a laptop computer which fulfils the minimum requirements (www.fhhwz.ch) of the HWZ.

All rights pertaining to the course materials and the logo of the HWZ are reserved. Reproduction or redistribution of any materials for other than educational purposes is strictly prohibited without the written permission of the university administration.

Copyright also protects all software and the HWZ e-mail system which the HWZ provides to its students. Any student who violates these rules or commits unlawful acts will be held liable for damages arising therefrom and may be expelled from the university without a refund of tuition payments.

Students must provide their own accident insurance. The HWZ provides no insurance coverage. All students receive a student ID card at the beginning of their studies.

There are special detailed rules which exist. Students must comply with all rules and regulations of the HWZ. They can be reviewed on the website of the HWZ and downloaded. The university administration will notify students of any possible changes in these rules and regulations in due time.

PAYMENT TERMS AND CONDITIONS

Standard fee	CHF 45,000
Fee for alumni members*	CHF 42,000

*Student needs to be alumni member before start of the program.

The fee is payable in six instalment payments

Each instalment payment, each half-year	CHF 7,500
---	-----------

Each instalment payment, each half-year, for alumni members	CHF 7,000
--	-----------

The instalment payments are due at the beginning of each term.

Not included: study materials, travel, lodging and meals.

If the student withdraws or is expelled after beginning the study program, the full fee of CHF 45,000/42,000 shall be charged with the exception of the portion for which the student is not responsible (e.g. disabilities, accidents, etc.).

No reductions may be made for vacations, illness/sick days or exemptions.

Changes in the mode of payment (from semester billing to monthly billing and vice versa) may be made at the beginning of each semester. Requests for this must be submitted six weeks prior to the start of the semester.

Changes in the billing address must be reported 45 days prior to the start of the semester.

If bills are to be forwarded to the employer for payment, written confirmation by the company or organisation is needed which states that they will take on all financial obligations arising from the agreement. In case of a change in employment, the student is responsible for the payments.

The university administration shall provide three months' notice when making any changes to the General Terms and Payment Terms and Conditions. Any increase of the fees by the USQ will be charged to the students.
